

Connect the external devices to the correct plugs on the laptop by joining the dots with horizontal and vertical lines. The cables cannot touch or cross at any point. Wherever a number appears in the grid, there must be that many horizontal and vertical line segments adjacent to it (immediately left/right/up/down).

Example:

Here is the actual puzzle:

